Check one or more of the following criteria for a "moving spirit" that have been satisfied:

____ Leading efforts to either form a new chapter or reactivate a dormant chapter.

____ Chairing the local organizing committee of a new or reactivated chapter

____ Through long-term involvement in various chapter activities and service to the Institute (or predecessor Societies) on chapter committees and/or as a chapter officer.

No more than three candidates, each from different chapters, will be selected for the award annually. Awards will be given to deserving candidates and there is no obligation to give any awards in a given year. Candidates for the award must be members in good standing of INFORMS and have been members for at least five (5), but not necessarily consecutive, years. The candidate cannot currently hold the chapter offices of president, vice president, or president-elect.

Candidates may be nominated by the candidate her- or himself, chapter members, and/or other observers. Nominations must be submitted at least six weeks prior to the national meeting of INFORMS via conventional mail to the INFORMS Subdivisions Committee. Nominations should provide all relevant details, including the name and chapter of the candidate, and the candidate’s qualifications along with a statement describing how the nominee is a "moving spirit" in the chapter.

Selection of award recipients will be based on the recipient’s contributions to their chapter’s longevity and to the Institute through chapter activities, and on a committee evaluation. The award, a signed 11"x8" mounted certificate, will be presented at the Chapters Breakfast at the national meeting of INFORMS; otherwise, awards will be mailed to those recipients unable to attend the meeting.
Please describe in ≤ 200 words how the nominee is a "moving spirit" in his or her chapter:
